Result: Denham 2nd won by 7 wickets.

A top order batting failure by Hurley 2nds contributed to a Denham victory. With both sides reduced to 10 men by late drop outs, the visitors won the toss and asked the hosts to bat first. Hurley were soon in trouble with Kuldeep Nothey (2) edging John Magner to Ambrose Treacy at slip in the fourth over. Yasir Gul (0) only lasted two deliveries, falling to a juggled catch in the gully by Danny Dawson. With Abdullah Ali (4) edging to slip and Jeff Dawson (0) losing his off stump to an away swinger from Jack Tomlinson, Hurley were in trouble at 15 for 4 after only 11 overs. Josh Cole (12) looked to be in good touch before poking a tame catch back to Magner. Matthew Addison (17) and Oscar Bean (50*) staged a bit of a recovery with a stand of 29 in 11 overs with both batsman showing a maturity and technique beyond their tender years. Tamul Siddiq produced a good delivery to shave the off stump of Addison at 59 for 6. Mike Walton joined Bean in the middle and the batsman set about rebuilding the innings with a partnership of 77 from 18 overs. The usually staid Walton (36) combined solid defence with punishment of anything loose, while his diminutive partner did the same. Having reached a second batting point in the 48th over, the batsmen looked to try and accelerate. Walton paid the price, bowled going down the track to Tomlinson leaving Nigel Haines (1*) to add a further 18 runs with Bean in the remaining three overs to take Hurley to a respectable score of 154 for 7.

The Denham reply got off to a solid start with a 27run partnership between Josh Simpson (21) and Danny Dawson (1). Addison made the breakthrough for Hurley in the sixth over, with Dawson chipping to Gul at mid-wicket. With Nothey suffering from injury he was withdrawn from the attack after only two overs and replaced by Haines. Addison took the new ball after half a dozen overs and immediately picked up the wicket of Simpson, clipping the top of off stump as the batsmen attempted a cross batted swipe. Haines bowled well without success and was replaced by Bean who dismissed Treacy with a wide full toss which was well caught at extra-cover by Josh Cole, diving to his right. Ansuman Swain (34*) and Siddiq (76*) did well to survive against a hostile spell from Addison, who passed the outside edge on numerous occasions with neither batsmen looking comfortable. Hurley rotated their bowling but were unable to pick up any more wickets as the batsmen grew in confidence, easing to victory with 14 overs to spare.
