Result: Hurley won by 127 runs.

Hurley 2nd XI made it two straight wins with a comprehensive victory at Penn & Tylers Green. The visitors were invited to bat first on a patchy looking track that proved to have inconsistent bounce. Despite starting cautiously as they got used to the vagaries of the pitch Phil Ridgeway (85) and Clive Williams (50) gave their side a solid start with an opening partnership of 154 in thirty-six overs. Matt Marriot eventually got the breakthrough when a tired looking Ridgeway advanced down the track and was stumped. Josh Cole replaced Ridgeway and set about the bowling with intent, blasting 34 from 16 deliveries. Williams reached his half-century before falling off the next delivery, chipping Judge to mid-wicket.

Joban Singh was pushed up the order to try and increase the scoring rate which he did with good effect with 46 from 23, allowing Cole to Call an end to the innings an over early, setting Penn & Tylers a target of 259 from 44 overs.

With the track crumbling, Hurley opened their attack with the spin of Liam Cole and Eisa Qayyum, bowling with the old ball. Raja and Pillai did their best to try and keep the scoreboard ticking over but found runs hard to come by, reaching 42 in the twelfth over before Pillai was caught by Ramzan off Qayyum. 42 for 1 became 57 for 4 within five overs as Waheed Ramzan trapped Raja in front and then bowled Baig. Joe Barrass making his long-awaited debut replaced Qayyum at the Pavilion end with his leg spin. Getting prodigious turn out of the rough, he had the batsmen guessing but it was a wide full toss that got him a wicket as Doug Marriot smashed the ball into the covers only to see Josh Cole dive to his left and pluck the ball out of the air. With the required rate climbing to unmanageable proportions for the hosts, their only hope was to try and salvage a draw. Kenzie Christopherson (33) and Abhi Thuse (15) put on 44 for the fifth wicket. Christopherson had a let off when Mike Walton missed a stumping off Barrass but had no answer to a seaming delivery from Gurdev Singh that sent his middle stump cartwheeling at 101 for 5. Another wicket for Gurdev left Hurley needing four more for victory. With Penn & Tylers batsmen looking more comfortable against the seamers, after the second drinks break Cole turned back to his spinners. Ridgeway replaced Gurdev and his second delivery saw Oscar Marriot edge to slip where Josh Cole took the catch inches off the turf. Matthew Judge showed some determined resistance facing 22 deliveries, but a rush of blood saw him charge Ridgeway and this time Walton made no mistake in completing the stumping. Qayyum wrapped up the victory taking the two final wickets with Akash Singh taking the winning catch over his head at short-extra to seal the win with nearly six overs to spare.
