Result: Sonning won by 4 wickets.

Another thrilling finish at Shepherds Lane saw Hurley's Sunday side lose their unbeaten record as Sonning scraped home off the last ball.

Hurley were inserted in a 40/40 match and openers Shoaib Kayani and Mike Cole posted 28 for the first wicket. Cole was the first to go, trapped in front by Mike Eaton. Mubashir Nabi failed to register on the scoreboard before chipping Eaton to point. John Munday was in flowing form with three boundaries off Eaton but was undone by the leg-spin of Josh Honey and was easily stumped by Alexander Fleming. Kayani (34) held the innings together while Parvinder Hunjan (39) and Joe Graham (58*) ensured Hurley reached a competitive 215 for 9.

The Sonning reply got off to a flying start with Coutts and Skiel posting 48 at a run a ball, helped by some wayward bowling from Hamzah Zaman and Maz Nabi. Nabi made the breakthrough having Skiel caught by Hunjan. A 101-run partnership between Coutts and D'Souza kept Sonning in the driving seat. Hurley skipper Mo Basharat brought himself and Hunjan on to try and regain some control which they achieved despite neither taking a wicket. Jo Graham (1-35) and John Munday (1-33) kept Hurley in the hunt but with only 25 runs required from five overs and D'Souza in full flow Sonning looked to be favourites. Cole was brought into the attack to ply his off-spin and got the vital wicket of D'Souza, stumped by Mike Walton, following this by bowling Naqi. With two overs remaining Sonning still needed 18 runs. Fleming and Wardlaw managed 11 off Basharat leaving 7 to get from the last over. The first five deliveries garnered 6 runs to tie the scores. With all the Hurley fielders in to save a single, Wardlaw kept his head and lofted Cole over the square-leg boundary to seal the victory.
