Result: Match Drawn

Hurley 2nd XI had the best of a draw in their Marrant Chilterns League Division 2 match against local rivals Holyport. Visiting skipper Ian Caskie called correctly and chose to bowl first, condemning his fielders to a few hours of chasing leather in the hot afternoon sun. A maiden over apiece from Charlie Ticehurst and Ian Caskie kept John Munday and Phil Ridgeway quiet initially with the opening partnership of 22 coming in seven overs. Munday tried one aerial shot too many and was caught in the deep by Jha off Ticehurst. This set the tone for the Hurley innings with all five wickets falling to catches in the deep. Skipper Josh

Cole joined Ridgeway in a stand of 72 with Cole (36) riding his luck, dropped twice before hitting a Jha full toss to Tristan Head. Mandeep Singh with 29 from 32 and Joban Singh (46 off 38) kept Ridgeway company as the score passed the 200 mark. Joban fell to another catch from Head leaving Ridgeway still 14 short of a century and Akash Singh was given the job of trying to help the veteran opener to treble figures. With overs running out the Hurley players and spectators were urging Ridgeway on and when the final over of the innings arrived he needed 2 more for his ton, which he reached off the final ball of the innings with a boundary.

Hurley opened with a twin spin attack of Liam Cole and Nigel Haines, which paid dividends, reducing the visitors to 22 for 3 in the sixth over. Both openers fell in the same fashion, top-edging Haines to Liam Cole at fine leg and it was Cole who bowled Abu Hussain with a delivery which kept low. Archie Gadeke and Noah Roychowdhury set about rebuilding the innings with a thirty-six run fourth wicket partnership in fifteen overs. With the required run rate steadily climbing, survival became the only option for Holyport. Krish Kota got rid of Gadeke with a swinging delivery into the pads and an ill-judged run saw Roychowdhury run out by a sharp throw to the keeper by Mandeep. Hurley chopped and changed the bowlers in an attempt to take wickets and John Munday picked up his first league wicket with leg-before decision against Mark Denholm. Tristan Head played in positive fashion, hitting four boundaries in his knock of 18, but his positivity was also his downfall, slicing a wide delivery from Ridgeway into the covers where Mandeep took a running catch. In his next over, Ridgeway held onto a sharp return catch to dismiss Jha, despite cutting his finger in the process. This left Hurley three overs to try and get the remaining two wickets. Young Charlie Ticehurst (15*) and Kester Banks (0*) remained defiant playing out three maiden overs to salvage the draw for Holyport.
