Result: Hetaroi won by 3 wickets.

On the day of the Euro 2020 final at Wembley, Hetaroi made their annual visit to Shepherds Lane. The match kicked off early to allow everyone to watch the events unfold in HA9.

Mo Basharat won the toss and opted to bat first with Shoaib Kayani and Mubashir Nabi opening the innings. A rare failure for Kayani saw him departing in the first over, edging the first straight delivery of the over from Fergus Neve onto his middle stump. Nabi and debutant Sohaib Nazir batted with intent, pushing the score to 39 in the seventh over before Nabi was trapped in front by Neve. A middle order collapse as Graham (0), Zaman (1) and Ajmal (1) all departed within the space of 11 deliveries left Hurley floundering on 56 for 6. Mike Walton strode out join Josh Cole, needing two runs to pass the milestone of 11000 runs for Hurley. This was quickly achieved, and the pair set about rebuilding the innings with a gritty partnership of 57 to get Hurley into treble figures. Cole (40) eventually fell to Wallis as an attempted drive was sliced to Ball at slip. Batting with the tail, Walton (28*) managed to eke the score along to 125 when Basharat made a very sporting declaration after forty-two overs.

What should have been a walk in the park for Hetaroi proved to be anything but. Mike Pennington (5) was unfortunate to be adjudged leg before to Zaman in the seventh over with only 7 runs on the board. The next twenty-three overs saw only forty-seven more runs added. Hurley's Pat Hinnell (13), playing as a guest for Hetaroi, took forty-three deliveries to get off the mark and was subjected to some good-natured ribbing from the fielding side. After lengthy spells from Zaman and Basharat, Liam Cole was brought into the attack and broke the partnership with a quicker delivery that clipped the top of Ball's off stump. Hinnell's marathon vigil was ended by Nigel Haines who also picked up the wicket of Thathapodi (3), caught behind. Hetaroi skipper Neve looked to introduce some impetus to the innings with 13 off fifteen balls but fell to an excellent catch in the deep by Graham off Haines. With thirty-eight runs required and five wickets in hand, the game was interestingly poised. Will Fryer (24*) carried on where his skipper left off and took his side to within 5 runs of victory when Wilson (21) was run out by Cole, the following over saw Ollie Fryer depart for a duck but Milo Abel (5*) secured the win for Hetaroi by three wickets with three overs to spare.
