Result: Crazies Hill & Cockpole Green won by 15 runs.

Hurley played hosts to neighbours Crazies Hill & Cockpole Green on the last Sunday of July. With the forecast threatening thunderstorms later in the afternoon, the captains agreed on a 35 over match. Mo Basharat won the toss and inserted the visitors, who got off to a disastrous start. Collapsing to 16 for 4 inside four overs. Maz Nabi did most of the early damage with three wickets in his second over to dismiss Simpson (0), Tett (5) and Lerche-Thompson (5). The next over saw Hamzah Zaman get in on the act, having Barnes Yallowley

(5) caught by Joseph Brittain. Charlie and Sam Montgomery staged a recovery with a partnership of 42 for the fifth wicket before Montgomery was bowled by Brittain. Charles Montgomery (46) and Olly Tett (41) helped the visitors get to 134 for 6 after twenty-three overs but a triple wicket maiden for Nigel Haines put the brakes on once again. Liam Cole wrapped up the innings in the next over without further addition to the score.

The Crazy's opening attack of Montgomery and Tett proved difficult for the Hurley batsmen to deal with. Only 15 runs were added for the first wicket before Mike Cole (9) edged to the keeper off Montgomery. The normally free flowing Shoaib Kayani was frustrated with only 12 runs from 43 balls, eventually falling leg-before to Sam Montgomery. With neither Mubashir Nabi nor Mo Basharat making much impression on the score board, as Margrie tore through the middle order, Hurley were reduced to 51 for 4 after 19 overs. Liam Cole (4) helped Simoes get the score up to 78 for 5 after 27 overs but with only eight overs left and 57 needed, the task was beginning to look beyond the capabilities of the Hurley batting line up. Simoes (50) and Brittain (18*) looked to increase the run rate but were unable to get their side into a winning position. Simoes departed in the thirty-third over, caught behind off Burnage and although Brittain and Zaman (4*) did their best, the bowlers held their nerve to see the visitors home.
