Result: Hurley won by 83 runs.

The annual fixture between Hurley and their old friends Kep Doon is always a keenly contested but sociable affair and this year's edition was no different. Hurley skipper Shoaib Kayani opted to bat first on winning the toss and sent Josh Cole and Pat Hinnell out to open the innings against the Kep Doon attack of Alex Cudworth and Ed Smith. The bowlers had the upper hand in the early exchanges without making a breakthrough and it was the change to the left-arm spin of Nico Adams that broke the partnership on 28 in the thirteenth over. Mubashir Nabi joined Cole in adding 56 for the second wicket before falling for 20, stumped off Nathan Shepherd. Cole reached his half-century and pushed on to score 70, eventually falling to a catch by Jasper Burton to give leg-spinner Sheppard the second of four victims. A fifty for Archie Wild took the hosts to 179 for 6 in the penultimate over, bringing Mike Walton out to the middle to join Ajmal Ali. Walton got off the mark with a trademark reverse sweep, to the delight of the assembled supporters and the pair added nine runs from the final ten deliveries to take Hurley to a competitive total of 188 for 6. The players enjoyed a sumptuous tea provided by the Burton family before the contest resumed with Jack Burton and Rob Tait opening the Kep Doon reply. The score had reached seven in the fifth over before Ali struck to remove Tait to a catch from Kayani. Ross Burton joined his brother and the pair added 22 for the second wicket before Jack was trapped in front by Joe Graham. Liam Cole replaced Graham at the Shepherds Lane end and struck in his first over to remove the dangerous Cudworth who was bowled attempting a slog sweep. Cole then dismissed Sheppard and Downes from consecutive deliveries to reduce the visitors to 44 for 5. Nigel Haines came on at the River End and the two spinners turned the screw. At 47 for 6 there looked no way back for Kep Doon but Ed Smith (15) and Ross Burton (30*) added some respectability to the score with a partnership of 29 for the seventh wicket. With Burton due on shift for Royal Berks Fire & Rescue Service, he retired, and Jasper Burton was allowed to return to substitute for him. The twelve-year-old made an impressive ten runs to add to his previous single before Nabi wrapped up the innings, getting Adams caught by Zaman at fine leg.
