Result: Denham won by 5 wickets.

The final week of the Marrant Chilterns League season saw Hurley travel to Denham. With Hurley already assured of the runner-up spot, the match had an end of term feeling about it. Hurley won the toss and opted to bat first, opening with Sajeed Ajmal and Fiyyaz Mahmood. The batsmen found life difficult with the Denham pairing of Akshay Apte and Jagjit Singh extracting pace and bounce from the pitch. It was the tall right-handed seamer Apte who got the initial breakthrough having Ajmal (7) caught at slip by Prince Singh. Ghandi joined Mahmood in a partnership of 61 for the second wicket and Hurley looked to be on their way to a good score. Mahmood (38), Ghandi (45) and Harron Malik (31) all made significant contributions but when Malik fell, caught behind to Taimoor Sadiq, this precipitated a collapse. Jagdeep fell by the same method off the next delivery and although skipper Yasir Gul survived the hat-trick ball, the rest of the Hurley line up could only manage another 22 runs as they subsided to 144 all out with Sadiq (5-48) being the chief destroyer.

In reply, Umar Zamman got an early breakthrough, bowling Osama Mahmood in the first over. Ikki Shokat looked to get on with it, smashing 43 from 40 deliveries before the change to Phil Ridgeway saw him caught at mid-on by Zamman from Ridgeway's second delivery. Ansuman Swain held the innings together with a patient 52 ended when Jagdeep claimed his wicket. Although they lost three more wickets, Denham were never really in any trouble, easing home with 13 overs to spare.
