Hurley won a thrilling encounter against league leaders Earley by 5 wickets on DLS after rain initially reduced the match to 26 overs per side. Home skipper Yasir Gul won the toss and invited the visitors to bat first and Earley made a competitive 214 for 7. Except for opener Aravind Gururajan all the other Earley batsmen made useful contributions. Ranvir Rana and Venu Gudimetla were joint top scorers with 45 runs apiece. Umar Zaman with 1 for 18 from 6 overs was the pick of the bowlers.

Further rain reduced the Hurley target to 190 from 22 overs, a stiff ask at nearly 9 runs per over. Adnan Shahzad showed his class with a brisk 94, his first fifty coming from only 17 deliveries. A close finish ensued as Hurley lost wickets, but Haroon Qayyum (34*) held his nerve to see Hurley over the finish line in the final over.
